Employer

channels. 13. Termination:

12. The employer shall assist the household service worker in remitting a percentage of his/her salary through proper banking

a. Termination by Employer: The employer may terminate the household service worker's contract of employment for any of the following just causes: serious misconduct or willful disobedience by the household service worker of the lawful orders of the employer or immediate household members in connection with his/her work; gross habitual neglect by the household service worker of her duties; violation of the laws of the host country. The household worker shall shoulder the repatriation expenses.

b. Termination by household service worker: 1) Termination without just cause: the household service worker may terminate the contract without just cause by serving a written notice on the employer at least one month in advance. Without such notice, the worker shall shoulder her/his return transportation. 2) Termination for a just cause: the worker may also terminate the contract without serving any notice on the employer for any of the following just causes: when the worker is maltreated by the Employer or any member of his household; when the employer violates the terms and conditions of this contract; when the employer commits any of the following acts – deliberate non payment of salary, physical molestation and physical assault. The Employer shall pay for the repatriation expenses.

c. Termination due to illness. Either party may terminate the contract on the grounds of illness, disease or injury suffered by the worker, where the latter's continued employment is prohibited by law or is prejudicial to his/her health as well as to the health of the employer and his household. The repatriation expenses shall be shouldered by the employer.

14. Settlement of Disputes. In case of dispute between the household service worker and the employer, the matter must be referred by either party to the Philippine Embassy who shall endeavor to settle the issue amicably to the best interest of both parties, as appropriate. If the dispute remains unresolved, the Embassy official shall refer the matter to the appropriate Labour authorities of the host country for adjudication without prejudice to whatever legal action the aggrieved party may take against the other.

15. Special Provisions:

a. The employer shall treat the household service worker in a just and humane manner. In no case shall physical violence be used upon the household service worker.

b. The household service worker shall work solely for the Employer and his immediate household. The employer shall in no case require the worker to work in another residence or be assigned in any commercial, industrial or agricultural enterprise.

c. The employer shall not deduct any amount from the regular salary of the household service worker other than compulsory contributions prescribed by law. Such legal deductions must be issued a corresponding receipt.

d. The employer shall pay for the household service worker's work/residence permit and exit/re-entry visa.

e. It shall be unlawful for the Employer to hold or withhold the Helper's passport with or without his/her consent.
